

Constantia Park Baptist Church

WILL BE HOLDING A MORNING SEMINAR ON

Evangelising Our Children

Jim Elliff is founder and president of Christian Communicators Worldwide.

Since The beginning of CCW in 1985, Jim has addressed organizations and groups in educational settings, churches, and pastor's fraternals of various denominations in almost every state of the United States and in numerous foreign countries.

Jim has a passion to communicate. He is the author of four books that have been published in the US and overseas, Led by the Spirit, Pursuing God—A Seeker's Guide, Going Under: Discussions on Baptism and Wasted Faith. He has written or edited many booklets which have been published by CCW. Jim's articles also appear in a variety of periodicals and his messages are frequently heard on radio. He was featured in a seven-part interview called How Children Come to Faith in Christ with Family Life Today hosted by Dennis Rainey,

In 1976 Jim married Pam; they are an active family of five. His wife and children, Benjamin, Bryan, and Laura sometimes travel with Jim both in the States and overseas.

We are privileged to be able to have Jim address a seminar on evangelizing our children here in South Africa.
